Policy Overview

While studying for academic qualifications with any UK Higher Education provider, it is usually an expectation that students cover their own travel costs. However, REAch Teach Primary Partnership acknowledges that the location of in-person elements of our training programme can mean that some trainees travel further than others. In order to be equitable across the cohort, we will contribute towards trainee travel expenses where journeys to in-person training events exceed certain parameters as laid out in this policy.

The aim of having a trainee travel and accommodation policy is to ensure consistency, fairness and affordability.

The policy is written with the following principles in mind:

- This policy covers travel to in-person events only (not placement schools, see note below)
- Trainees only claim travel costs and accommodation if they need to
- Accommodation is via an opt-in, and always booked by the REAch Teach team. This will not be expensed separately.
- Trainees always travel via the cheapest possible method.
- All tickets are booked as far in advance as possible.
- All costs of travel options are considered before making a booking.
- If trainee circumstances change, and accommodation or travel is no longer needed, REAch Teach will be informed as soon as possible.
- In line with the REAch 2 strategic priority of Sustainability, travel by train or car-sharing is encouraged wherever possible to minimise the environmental impact of training events.

Note about travel to placement schools

- Trainees are responsible for arranging their own travel to and from placements. REAch Teach will not pay travel expenses in order for trainees to reach placement schools.
- REAch Teach will endeavour to provide trainees with the best and most appropriate placements available and trainees accept placements with a full responsibility for funding their travel to and from the placement school for the duration of the programme.
- REAch Teach Primary Partnership reserves the right to place trainee teachers in any of its partnership schools/settings but will always endeavour to do so in such a way that access to placements is reasonable.
- All trainees may be expected to make journeys of up to 60 minutes duration from their home address to reach a placement.

Travel and Accommodation Criteria

The criteria has been based on the distance travelled for car transport and the equivalent for public transport. To check eligibility, trainees must calculate the distance from their home to the venue to which they are travelling.

To calculate this, trainees must:

- Use Google Maps
- Use your home postcode as the starting point
- Use the postcode of the event you are travelling to (this may change for each event)
- Use the shortest return distance in miles

When claiming you will be asked to confirm these details, including your home postcode, as part of the expenses process.

Travel: What You Can Claim (guidance for trainees)

Travelling by Car

The driver of the car can claim if their school is more than 25 miles from the venue. Any miles travelled in excess of 50 miles (return) can be claimed for at 20p per mile.

- Example 1: Your school is 40 miles from the training venue, so you will do an 80-mile return trip. Therefore, you can claim 30 miles (80 minus 50) at 20p = £6 in expenses
- Example 2: You live 10 miles from the venue, so you will do a 20-mile return. As you will not travel over 50 miles in total you are not entitled to claim any travel costs

Car-sharing

If eligible to claim (as per above criteria), the driver of the car is able to claim for any passengers in the car at a rate of 5p per passenger per mile. These should be added to the claim form as per the process in Appendix 1.

Driver's responsibility

It is your responsibility to ensure that you comply with your Motor Vehicle Insurance Policy and all other regulations. You will be required to send a copy of your Motor Vehicle Insurance certificate to the REAch Teach team before being eligible to claim for any expenses. REAch2 accepts no liability for loss of, or damage to, vehicles being used on travel to training events. If you car-share, please ensure your Motor Vehicle Insurance Policy covers you for this kind of travel and ensure your car is road worthy. It is your responsibility and REAch2 does not take responsibility for any part of these journeys, for either the driver or the passenger.

Fines

REAch2 will not meet the cost of fines incurred by individual for motoring or parking offences while training with REAch2.

Travelling by Public Transport (bus, rail, tram or tube)

If you are travelling by public transport, you can claim any cost over £10 if:

- You booked the travel in advance of the event
- You booked the cheapest options available
- You did not travel first class
- You can provide a copy of all tickets/ticket booking confirmation being claimed for. This must clearly state the journey, date of journey and the price paid

Please note: The amount is set at £10 because this equates to 20p per mile for 50 miles and is therefore in line with the policy for car travel.

Notes on rail travel

Rail travel should be second class or evidence provided that the most cost-effective way to travel was used. First class rail travel is only permitted where it can be clearly evidenced that it is the cheapest ticketing option of all available tickets.

Travel should be pre-booked which usually costs significantly less than purchasing a ticket on the day of travel; booking travel in advance will always be the preferred method of booking. Significant savings can be obtained by specifying outward and/or return journeys at time of booking, and this is encouraged.

The training timetable for the year is provided before the academic year commences, however, REAch Teach may need to make adjustments to this schedule due to unforeseen circumstances through the year. Most tickets are able to be amended or refunded with advance notice, and trainees would be expected to make all reasonable efforts to do so in advance of the original travel date. In the unlikely event this is not possible, REAch Teach will cover the expenses of the unused travel. Please note: This will not apply if there have not been attempts by the trainee to cancel or amend the travel in advance (i.e. once the travel date has passed); the team reserve the right to ask for evidence that this has been attempted in advance of the travel date as part of the claims process. Please take screenshots or save communications as part of evidence for this.

Parking

This policy does not cover any parking expenses. Parking will not be refunded. Please consider parking costs when deciding how you will travel to your events.

Taxis

This policy does not cover any taxi expenses and these will not be refunded. Please consider connection costs when deciding how you will travel to your events.

Accommodation: Opt-in

By car:

You are eligible to opt-in to accommodation for events that last for 2 days or more (e.g. Intensive Training and Practice events) if you live more than 70 miles from the venue.

- Example 1: You live more than 70 miles the venue which will be a 140 mile round-trip. You can opt-in to accommodation which will be booked for you by contacting the REAch Teach team.
- Example 2: You live 50 miles from the venue. As you do not live 70 miles or more from the venue you cannot opt-in to accommodation and will be expected to travel to the venue each day.

By public transport:

You are eligible to opt-in to accommodation for events that last for 2 days or more (e.g. Intensive Training and Practice events) if your travel by train will be more than 2 hours one-way when arriving by the event start time.

- Example 1: You live more than 2 hours on public transport from the venue trip. You can opt-in to accommodation which will be booked for you by contacting the REAch Teach team. This travel time will be confirmed by the REAch Teach team.
- Example 2: You live less than 2 hours on public transport. You will be expected to travel to the venue each day.

If you are eligible and this is confirmed by the REAch Teach team, you can opt-in for:

- Accommodation the night in-between the training days for training events that last more than one day.

If you meet the criteria for accommodation, it is your responsibility to ensure you opt-in to accommodation by the deadline. You will be contacted by the REAch Teach team prior to events to arrange this. If you do not opt-in by the deadline, REAch Teach reserve the right not to book or pay for accommodation. REAch Teach will not pay for any accommodation booked directly by trainees.

Extenuating Circumstances

The travel and accommodation policy will apply to most trainees. However, if you are in need of reasonable adjustments, please ensure you discuss this with your Regional ITT Lead.

Policy Review

This policy will be reviewed every 3 years or sooner, taking into account any legislative changes. Any changes made to this policy will be communicated to all relevant stakeholders.
